Letter from the Collector of South Kanara, Ref. C.No.5108/38-A.3 dated 17th August, 1938:-

I submit herewith a memorial from Shri Dugganna Shavantha / Arasu of Moolky Shime residing in Moolky Aramane. The memorialist is a malikhana holder and receives a political pension of Rs.331-12-0 from Government. He has a debt of over eleven thousand Rupees and requests that Government might be pleased to undertake to discharge his debts, for which he is prepared to assign to Government the political pension attached to his house for a period of thirty years. I have not seen any provision by which the petitioner can bind or assign his malikhana allowance in the manner he proposes to do.
